Ezekiel 17:22-24 / 2 Corinthians 5:6-10 Psalm 92:2-3, 13-16/Mark 4:26-34

WITHER-PROOF

"I, the Lord...wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom." –Ezekiel 17:24

Once Jesus looked for fruit on a fig tree. The tree had no fruit, only leaves. Jesus cursed that fig tree and it "withered up instantly" to its roots (Mt 21:19; Mk 11:20). It didn't bear fruit, for it was not yet the season for figs (Mk 11:13). This could be Jesus' way of indicating that the kingdom of God was now at hand. The time of Jesus' visitation came (Lk 19:44), and there was no fruit to be found after "three years" of ministry (see Lk 13:6-9).

In the natural world, some seasons are for bearing fruit and others for being dormant. In the kingdom of God, however, we are to bear fruit "in season and out of season" (2 Tm 4:2, RSV-CE). In God's kingdom, the trees bear fruit every month of the year (Rv 22:2); there is no off-season. We may be weak and tiny, yet the Lord can make us bloom "and bear fruit" for His Kingdom (Ez 17:23). Though we may be old and "withered," He will make "the withered tree bloom" (Ez 17:24). Jesus heals the withered (see Lk 6:6).

Rooted in the Word of God, we will be a tree planted by streams of water, yielding constant fruit without withering (Ps 1:3, RSV-CE; see also Ez 47:12, RSV-CE). We will bear fruit even in old age when our bodies would normally wither (Ps 92:15; Is 40:29-31). A time will come when we must bear fruit (see Lk 13:9; Jn 15:2-6). If we bear no fruit, we will be "like a withered, rejected branch, picked up to be thrown in the fire and burnt" (Jn 15:6). Be wither-proof. Stay rooted in Jesus.

Prayer: Father, give me such a hunger for Your Word that I will become wither-proof and bear the abundant fruit You seek.

Promise: "We walk by faith, not by sight." –2 Cor 5:7

Praise: Alleluia! Jesus will come again in glory. Praise be to Jesus!

We pray that migrants fleeing from war or hunger, forced to undertake journeys full of danger and violence, find welcome and new opportunities in the countries that receive them.

June 16, 2024 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil." - 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for all the gifts God has given us – our time, talent, and treasure; everything we have and are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own lives but for the lives of others as well. One day, God will ask each of us what we did with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

June is known as the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus most simply because the solemnity of the Sacred Heart is celebrated during this month. The feast dates back to 1673, when a French nun who belonged to the Order of the Visitation of Holy Mary (Visitandines) in eastern France began to receive visions of Jesus. Jesus appeared to Sister Margaret Mary Alacoque and revealed ways to venerate his Sacred Heart and explained the immense love he has for humanity, appearing with his heart visible outside his chest, on fire, and surrounded by a crown of thorns. These different ways include partaking in a holy hour on Thursdays and the reception of the Eucharist on the first Friday of every month. Jesus told Sister Margaret Mary: “My Sacred Heart is so intense in its love for men, and for you in particular, that not being able to contain within it the flames of its ardent charity, they must be transmitted through all means.” These visions continued for 18 months. On June 16, 1675, Jesus told Sister Margaret Mary to promote a feast that honored his Sacred Heart. He also gave her 12 promises made to all who venerate and promote the devotion of the Sacred Heart. These are the promises the Sacred Heart of Jesus made to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque: I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life. I will give peace in their families. I will console them in all their troubles. I will be their refuge in life and especially in death. I will abundantly bless all their undertakings. Sinners shall find in my heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy. Tepid souls shall become fervent. Fervent souls shall rise speedily to great perfection. I will bless those places wherein the image of my Sacred Heart shall be exposed and venerated. I will give to priests the power to touch the most hardened hearts. Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names eternally written in my heart. In the excess of the mercy of my heart, I promise you that my all-powerful love will grant to all those who will receive Communion on the first Fridays, for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance: They will not die in my displeasure, nor without receiving the sacraments; and my heart will be their secure refuge in that last hour.
