Will everyone be saved?

"At all times and in every race God has given welcome to whosoever fears Him and does what is right. God, however, does not make men holy and save them merely as individuals, without bond or link between one another. Rather has it pleased Him to bring men together as one people, a people which acknowledges Him in truth and serves Him in holiness. He therefore chose the race of Israel as a people unto Himself. With it He set up a covenant. Step by step He taught and prepared these people, making known in its history both Himself and the decree of His will and making it holy unto Himself. All these things, however, were done by way of preparation and as a figure of that new and perfect covenant, which was to be ratified in Christ, and of that fuller revelation which was to be given through the Word of God Himself made flesh...

This Sacred Council wishes to turn its attention firstly to the Catholic faithful. Basing itself upon Sacred Scripture and Tradition, it teaches that the Church, now sojourning on earth as an exile, is necessary for salvation. Christ, present to us in His Body, which is the Church, is the one Mediator and the unique way of salvation. In explicit terms He Himself affirmed the necessity of faith and baptism and thereby affirmed also the necessity of the Church, for through baptism as through a door men enter the Church. Whosoever, therefore, knowing that the Catholic Church was made necessary by Christ, would refuse to enter or to remain in it, could not be saved. They are fully incorporated in the society of the Church who, possessing the Spirit of Christ accept her entire system and all the means of salvation given to her, and are united with her as part of her visible bodily structure and through her with Christ, who rules her through the Supreme Pontiff and the bishops. He is not saved, however, who, though part of the body of the Church, does not persevere in charity. All the Church's children should remember that their exalted status is to be attributed not to their own merits but to the special grace of Christ.

Finally, those who have not yet received the Gospel are related in various ways to the people of God. In the first place we must recall the people to whom the testament and the promises were given and from whom Christ was born according to the flesh. But the plan of salvation also includes those who acknowledge the Creator. In the first place amongst these there are the Muslims, who profess to hold the faith of Abraham. Nor is God far distant from those who in shadows and images seek the unknown God. Those also can attain salvation who through no fault of their own do not know the Gospel of Christ or His Church, yet sincerely seek God and, moved by grace, strive by their deeds to do His will as it is known to them through the dictates of conscience. Nor does Divine Providence deny the help necessary for salvation to those who, without blame on their part, have not yet arrived at an explicit knowledge of God and with His grace strive to live a good life" (Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, Lumen Gentium, n. 9, 14, 16).

Question: How should we prepare to participate in the banquet that the Lord has prepared for us?

For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Go to Joseph

In the article "Go to Joseph" the author Julia and Francis Dezelski explain how St. Joseph provides a powerful example of what it means to be a loving husband, father, and protector. Joseph showed great strength and faith when he discovered that Mary was expecting a child who was not his. Even though he was confused and faced a difficult decision, his first instinct was to protect Mary's dignity and prevent her from being publicly shamed. When God revealed His plan to Joseph, he trusted God and faithfully accepted the responsibility of caring for Mary and Jesus.

The authors also connect Joseph's example to the vocation of marriage and family life. They explain that marriage is built on a mutual exchange of love, sacrifice, protection, and care between husband and wife. Just as Joseph protected and cared for Mary and Jesus, husbands and wives are called to support and protect one another while giving themselves generously to their family. The authors point out that children also benefit from this mutual love because they learn to recognize and appreciate the different gifts their mother and father bring to the family.

Overall, the article encourages families to look to St. Joseph as an example of quiet strength, faithful love, selflessness, and devotion to God and family.

Oktoberfest Thank You!

Oktoberfest was a great success! Everyone stepped up and stepped in where needed. Whether you helped with strudel, set-up or clean-up, worked in an area for a shift or several shifts, bussed tables, bought or sold tickets, came and ate one of the dinners or several dinners, donated or bought items from the silent auction and pastry, or just prayed for a successful event, your help was greatly appreciated. It is impossible to thank every individual by name, but thank you to the chairpersons who took care of the different areas: Judy Beacco, DeAnn Gilson, Marilyn Graham & JDee Gramlich, Shawna Pierce & Sherri Regis, Dan & Tamara Dockstader, Ann Milano & Alycia Sandoval. The delicious dinner food was made possible by Olga Sanchez and Shawna Pierce, Sherri Regis and Families; Randy & Angel grilled for the event. Mike Milovich made and donated all the kielbasa and Italian sausage and Madalene Williams made our pickled eggs and popped the popcorn. The Knights covered bingo for 9 hours and Karen Ibanez made our table decoration. By everyone doing a little, we accomplished a lot. We are indeed blessed in our parish! Final figures for this year's Oktoberfest will be in the bulletin towards the end of October.
